

New 2012 Visa Lottery results by July 15, 2011

Due to a computer programming problem, the results of the 2012 Diversity Lottery that were previously posted on the Department of state website have been voided. They were not valid and were posted in error. The results were not valid because they did not represent a fair, random selection of entrants, as required by U.S. law.

A new selection process will be conducted based on the original entries for the 2012 program. If you submitted a qualified entry from October 5, 2010 to November 3, 2010, your entry remains with the department of state. It will be included in the new selection lottery. Your confirmation number to check results on this website is still valid.
